

Propulsion specialist RENK strengthens Marine and Industry

Nadine Despineux and Nils Oesterlen appointed to senior management

Augsburg,

02 September 2022

Effective 1st October 2022, Nadine Despineux (44) takes on the newly created post of CEO for the Marine & Industry division within the RENK Group. Nils Oesterlen (42) has directed the affairs of the Marine business unit since 1st August 2022. He will report directly to Nadine Despineux, who in turn reports to Managing Director and Chairwoman of the RENK Group, Susanne Wiegand.

RENK GmbH

Goegginger Str. 73

D-86159 Augsburg

Germany

"We've reshaped our management at RENK Marine & Industry so that it's soundly future-proof", says Susanne Wiegand. "Nadine Despineux is a real expert, particularly in the important fields of agile management and digital transformation."

Inquiries to:

press@renk-group.com

www.renk-group.com

The new CEO has many years' experience in industry. She held various management posts at MTU Friedrichshafen/Rolls Royce Power Systems. Most recently she was a managing director of plastics machines manufacturer KraussMaffei Technologies in Munich, where she was responsible for setting up and directing Digital & Service Solutions. Her remits as President of that unit were global service business, the development and marketing of digital products and services and the development of new fields of business.

Nils Oesterlen, head of RENK Marine since August 2022, started his career at MAN Energy Solutions working in the four-stroke marine engines sector. He was in charge of global sales of propulsion solutions for merchant marine and navy applications before moving on to business development for new propulsion solutions against the background of decarbonization and digitalization.

Both Nadine Despineux and Nils Oesterlen have worked successfully with RENK on joint projects in the past.

Note for the press: SMM maritime trade fair (6th to 9th September 2022 in Hamburg)

Nils Oesterlen will be available to the press on RENK's stand (hall A3, stand 207) at the SMM in Hamburg continuously or by arrangement.

About the RENK Group:

Headquartered in Augsburg, Germany, the RENK Group is a leading global player for high-end gear units, power packs, hybrid propulsion systems, suspension systems, plain bearings, couplings and test systems. The company caters to a multiplicity of end markets, focusing especially on security and defense, energy and infrastructure. With more than 3000 employees, the RENK Group earns annual income on the high side of EUR 850 million.

For more information visit:

www.renk-group.com

Nadine Despineux

Nils Oesterlen

Image rights: RENK GmbH